The Client requests the inspection of the building(s) located on the Subject Property subject to the following limitations and conditions:

1. Visual Inspection. The inspection conducted by Alliance Home Inspections, LLC pursuant to the Agreement is based on a visual examination of the readily accessible features of the building. The inspection is not technically exhaustive. The Client is hereby warned that not all deficiencies will be revealed. The Client is advised more comprehensive inspections are available and the Client is encouraged to consider the merits of more comprehensive inspections. Alliance Home Inspections, LLC makes no representations as to compliance, infraction or breach of any building, plumbing, electrical or other code(s), zoning, land use or by-law(s) of municipal, regional, or federal governments/statutes including, but not limited to, any/all environmental and conservation authorities, preservation and/or historical plans or flood plain areas.

2. Purpose. The purpose of a home inspection is to examine the building, to evaluate the condition of the components and to educate the Client about the general condition of the building. No claim is expressed or implied that all problems in the building will be discovered by the Inspector.

3. Inspection Report. The inspection report provided after the inspection is an opinion of the present condition of the building. The inspection report, prepared by Alliance Home Inspections, LLC in accordance to the Standards of Practice as set forth by the Louisiana State Board of Home Inspectors, is prepared with reasonable skill and care and is subject to the limitations contained herein. The inspection report is limited to the physical evidence that was visually accessible at the time of the inspection. Emphasis is placed on identifying major problems. While some minor problems may be noted, an all-inclusive list of deficiencies will not be provided.

4. Limitations. In addition to, and not to limit the above, the following are not the responsibility or the subject matter of an inspection or report:

- i) The inspection and inspection report excludes and does not intend to cover any areas, items, and conditions, which by their nature are, concealed, not accessible, not visible, cosmetically altered, not conveniently located, otherwise difficult to inspect, or require the relocation, removal or displacement of any material, object or thing being a precondition to such inspection or inspection report;
- ii) The inspection and inspection report excludes and does not intend to cover swimming pools, whirlpools, spas, hot tubs, wells, water potability, septic systems, tennis courts, playground equipment or household appliances including but not limited to kitchen, leisure and laundry equipment. Also excluded are all fixtures and cosmetic conditions such as wallpapering and painting;

iii) THE INSPECTION AND INSPECTION REPORT IS NOT INTENDED OR TO BE CONSIDERED AS A GUARANTEE OR WARRANTY, EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED INCLUDING ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OR MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR USE, REGARDING THE CONDITION OF THE PROPERTY, BUILDINGS, ITEMS CONTAINED IN THE BUILDING, STRUCTURAL, MECHANICAL AND SYSTEMS INSPECTED AND IT SHOULD NOT BE RELIED UPON AS SUCH;

- iv) The inspection and inspection report are based on observations of the conditions that existed at the time of the inspection only;
- v) Alliance Home Inspections, LLC does not warrant, represent or inspect for any hazardous materials, substances, contaminants, pollutants, toxic gases or wastes, of any kind, including those as defined in applicable statutes, regulations, orders and bylaws enacted or adopted for the protection and conservation of the natural environment including, but not limited to, urea formaldehyde foam insulation (UFFI), lead, asbestos, radon and gamma carbon monoxide and polychlorinated biphenyls (PCB's) wherever they may be located, mold, mildew, algae, or bacteria. Alliance Home Inspections, LLC does not inspect or monitor any geological or soil conditions or other potential environmental hazards;
- vi) Although Alliance Home Inspections, LLC may look for termites and other wood damaging or non-wood damaging insect infestations, the Inspector does not assume any liability or responsibility for determining their presence, in the past, present or future; and,
- vii) Alliance Home Inspections, LLC has limited its inspection of heating, ventilating, air conditioning, electrical and plumbing systems to those matters specifically noted in the Inspection Report. The internal conditions of air conditioning and heating systems, furnace heat exchangers, fireplaces, chimneys, or flues are excluded. Weather limitations may also affect the extent to which the Inspector may inspect the property, especially in connection with the heating and air conditioning systems.

5. Limitation of Liability. The inspection and inspection report are furnished on an "opinion only" basis. Alliance Home Inspections, LLC assumes no liability or responsibility for the cost of repair or replacing any reported and/or unreported defects or conditions. The Client agrees that the maximum aggregate liability of the Inspector or Alliance Home Inspections, LLC for this inspection shall be limited to the amount of the inspection fee agreed to in this Inspection Agreement. The Client understands that this inspection report cannot accurately or completely assess risk, detect all flaws, predict all occurrences or make assurances. The Client understands that the inspection report is not a warranty, guarantee, or insurance policy.

 Initial

Client agrees that any claim alleging Inspector's failure to accurately report a visually observable defective condition of the Subject Property shall be made in writing and delivered to the Inspector within ten (10) business days of discovery. Client further agrees that, with the exception of emergency conditions, neither Client, nor anyone acting on Client's behalf, will make alterations, modifications, or repairs to the subject of the claim prior to a re-inspection by the Inspector. Inspector agrees to re-inspect the alleged condition within 72 hours of receipt of written notice by Client, exclusive of weekends and holidays. Client further agrees and understands that any failure to notify Alliance Home Inspections, LLC as set forth above, shall constitute a waiver of any and all claims for said failure to accurately report the condition.

6. Right of Entry. The Client warrants that they or their real estate agent have made all necessary arrangements with the selling party for the Inspector or Alliance Home Inspections, LLC to enter and inspect the Subject Property.

7. Participation. The Client acknowledges that they have been encouraged to participate in the inspection and accepts responsibility for incomplete information should they not participate in the inspection. The Client's participation shall be at their own risk for injuries, property damages, and any other damages.

9. Third Parties. The Client requests this inspection and inspection report for their confidential use only. The Inspection Agreement, any interest herein or claims hereunder including those for money or payment, shall not be transferred or assigned by the Client. The Client promises to indemnify and hold harmless the Inspector and Alliance Home Inspections, LLC for any damages and/or expenses involved in addressing or defending claims made by others in relation to this report. The information provided in the inspection report will be the Client's property solely for this transaction. The Inspector or Alliance Home Inspections, LLC will disclose the inspection report to real estate agents, sellers, lenders or other parties intimate to this particular transaction for the purpose of clarification and facilitation of repairs with the client's permission.

10. Severability. If any provision of this Inspection Agreement is determined to be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part, such invalidity or unenforceability shall attach only to such provision or part thereof and the remaining part of such provision and all other provisions hereto shall continue in full force and effect.

11. Binding. This agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors, assigns and legal representatives.

The undersigned have read this agreement and understand and accept the terms and conditions thereof.
